

AVID Property Group is working with builders to deliver you the best housing.

Wouldn't you rather have your brand new dream home – instead of buying someone else's home?

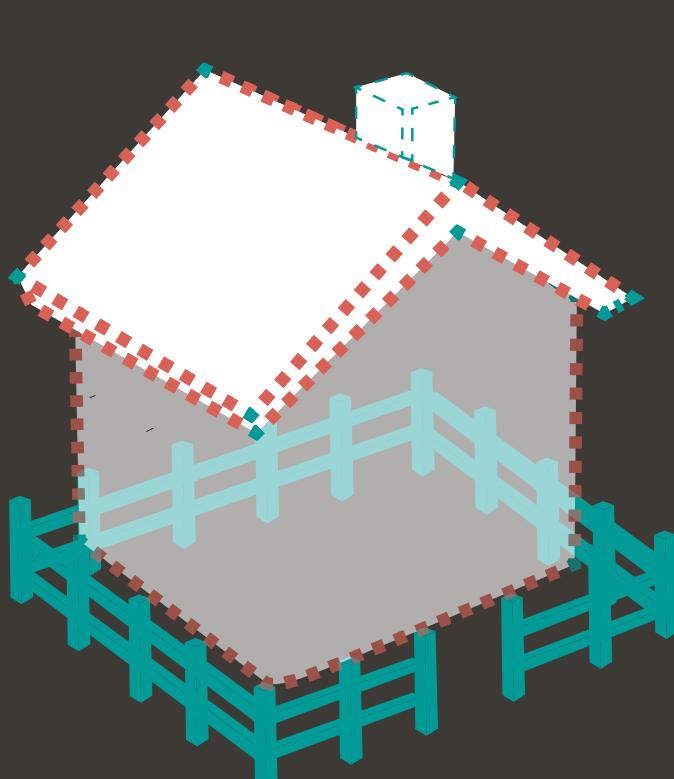

When you buy with AVID Property Group we offer you two great choices:

A house and land package

Choose from a range of affordable standard designs.

Building to your own design

Choose a custom design and make all the design, layout and location choices yourself.

Either way, with AVID Property Group, you get a home perfectly suited to your lifestyle, family requirements and taste.

We've taken the guesswork out of choosing a builder

Builders working with AVID Property Group are highly respected and experienced new home builders who understand what modern Australian families are looking for in a new home.

They offer a range of contemporary homes specially designed for AVID Property Group communities, with a variety of standard houses, ranging from affordable designs to highly innovative upmarket designs.

$

$$

$$$

There are real benefits to choosing builders working with AVID Property Group:

Typically lower initial building costs compared to custom builders

Home designs that set new benchmarks in urban design

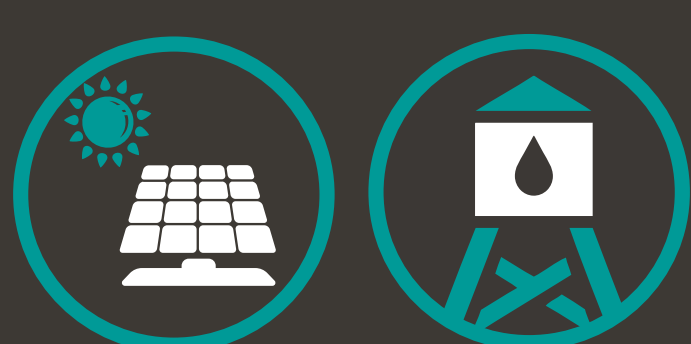

Contemporary styling and a focus on sustainability and lifestyle features

Their greener building practices mean you receive:

The latest energy and water efficient elements

A more sustainable home

Potential energy bill savings over time

And last but not least

Homes are delivered complete and ready for you to move in

So all you have to do now is plan your move

All builders working with AVID Property Group are very well known in the building industry, members of the Housing Industry Association, or members of the Master Builders Association.